Itinerary

NCL's "Pride of America"

DAY 1: Home City to Honolulu, HI

Travel from your Home City to Honolulu. Upon touching down in this tropical paradise, you are welcomed with the embrace of a traditional Hawaiian Lei Greeting, setting the tone for your Hawaiian adventure. After, you are transferred to your accommodation in the vibrant neighborhood of Waikiki where your hotel is just steps away from the International Market. The transfers are aligned with the arrival and departure schedule of the group air being offered, ensuring a hassle-free journey.

DAY 2: Waikiki

This morning offers the perfect opportunity to bask in the Hawaiian sun's warmth, before joining your Tour Director for a delightful welcome lunch at a popular Hawaiian hotspot. The remainder of the day is yours to enjoy at your leisure.

Leahi (Diamond Head)

DAY 3: Waikiki

This morning, you set off for Pearl Harbor, the historic site that marked the United States' entry into World War II. This visit promises to be an unforgettable experience. Your time at Pearl Harbor includes a comprehensive itinerary: an audio tour of the Pearl Harbor National Museum, entrance to the Battleship Missouri Memorial with a self-guided tour of the Mighty Mo, admission to the Pearl Harbor Aviation Museum with an audio guide, and access to the Pacific Fleet Submarine Museum, also accompanied by an audio guide. To ensure you have the energy for the day's adventures, we have arranged for an included lunch during your time at Pearl Harbor.

In the afternoon, we shift to a leisurely City Tour of Honolulu. This part of the journey allows you to explore and appreciate the charm of the city, with stops at notable landmarks such as the State Capitol, Chinatown, Iolani Palace, and a scenic drive through the serene Punchbowl National Cemetery.

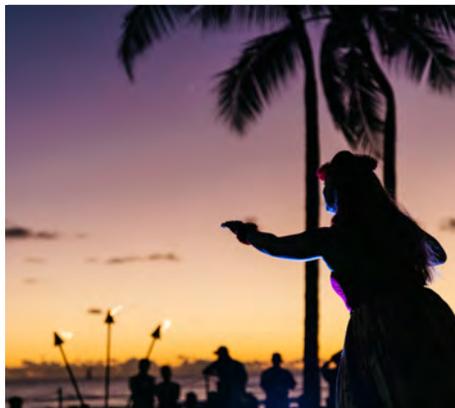

DAY 4: Waikiki

Following a day packed with exploration, today is your well-deserved leisure day. There's an abundance of activities awaiting you: from indulging in some retail therapy, unwinding on the picturesque beaches and in the refreshing waters, to venturing into the Honolulu Zoo, the Aquarium, and countless other options.

DAY 5: Polynesian Cultural Center

After a free morning, you embark on a journey towards the Polynesian Cultural Center.

On arrival at the Polynesian Cultural Center, an included lunch awaits you. Afterward, you will have the freedom to

Hula performance at sunset

What's Included

-  6 Nights Accommodation
-  7 Nights Onboard Norwegian Cruises 'Pride of America'
-  Deluxe Motorcoach Transportation
-  Multi-night Stay in Waikiki
-  Baggage handling – 1 per person
-  25 Meals Included

explore the seven distinct cultural villages, each representing a unique facet of Polynesian heritage, including Samoa, Tahiti, and more. As the sun begins to set, delight in a wonderful Lu'au Buffet including a flower lei greeting, the uncovering of the pig from the imu (underground oven), and live entertainment. To cap off this remarkable day, immerse yourself in the enthralling performance of "HA - The Breath of Life" with gold level seating, an extravagant showcase of Polynesian dance featuring a cast of over 100 talented performers.

DAY 6: Waikiki

As your last full free day in Waikiki, you have the opportunity to savour every remaining moment of this paradise. You might choose to use this day to explore any sights and experiences you have not yet had the chance to enjoy. Alternatively, you may opt for a tranquil day of relaxation, with the soothing embrace of the beach, the inviting turquoise waters, and the warmth of the sun.

DAY 7: Embarkation Day

Following a relaxing morning, it's time to embark on the next exciting chapter of your journey. You will head to the cruise port to board the splendid 'Pride of America,' your home for the next seven nights. This remarkable vessel underwent a comprehensive renovation in 2022, and it boasts an impressive array of amenities, including 14 dining venues, 9 bars and lounges, and a multitude of engaging activities for passengers to enjoy throughout the duration of the cruise.

DAY 8: Kahului, Maui

Your first port of call, Kahului, offers an abundance of natural beauty and the warm hospitality of its residents, contributing to Maui's status as Hawaii's second most popular island. Here, you enjoy the first included shore excursion, Highlights of Central Maui. Head west, towards Iao Valley State Park. It was here, in this densely forested cul-de-sac, that King Kamehameha conquered Maui in order to unite the Hawaiian Islands, and changed the course of Hawaiian history. After enjoying the trails and scenery, continue your journey to a Maui Tropical Plantation where we delight our senses in Hawaii's native flower and food crops with a 40 minute narrated Tram Tour through macadamia nut orchards, agricultural villages, sugar cane fields and flower gardens.

Kaului Beach

DAY 9: Kaului, Maui

On your second day in Kahului, you have the luxury of additional time to explore and experience all that this popular island has to offer. It's a great opportunity to tick off any remaining items on your list of must-see and must-do activities, ensuring that you make the most of your time in this enchanting destination.

DAY 10: Hilo, Hawaii

Hilo, in its entirety, resembles a massive greenhouse, adorned with breathtaking tropical flowers at every twist and turn. While here, take the time to explore the town's meticulously preserved historic structures, dating back to the turn of the century, which proudly display Hawaii's distinctive architectural heritage. Moreover, a mere 30 miles away lies the remarkable Hawaii Volcanoes National Park, where the active

Kilauea Volcano calls home, offering a captivating and ever-changing landscape to discover.

DAY 11: Kona, Hawaii

Kona offers the quintessential Hawaii experience with its sunny, warm weather and inviting crystal blue waters that beckon visitors to indulge in a myriad of oceanfront adventures. You can snorkel amidst a vibrant tapestry of tropical marine life, embark on a serene kayaking expedition, or venture out into deeper waters for an exciting deep-sea fishing excursion. The possibilities for aquatic enjoyment in Kona are as endless as the ocean itself, promising an unforgettable island experience.

DAY 12: Nawiliwili, Kaua'i

Named after the Wiliwili trees that once adorned its charming harbor, the lovely port of Kaua'i serves as your gateway to what many consider Hawaii's most exquisite island. On "The Garden Island," nature takes center stage, from the awe-inspiring mountains of Kokee to the refreshing rainforests of Haena. Adding to the island's allure, the tradition of the luau offers a lively and culturally rich form of entertainment that is unique to Hawaii.

DAY 13: Nawiliwili, Kaua'i

On your second day in Nawiliwili, join us on your second included shore excursion, Waimea Canyon & Spouting Horn. Enjoy a day filled with the lush beauty, legends and saga of Hawaii's "Garden Isle." Journey to the majestic Waimea Canyon, which Mark Twain called "the Grand Canyon of the Pacific". Over 10 miles long, and almost 4,000 feet deep this marvel was formed by erosion and the catastrophic collapse of the volcano that created Kauai. Waimea Canyon State Park encompasses 1,866 acres and provides a wilderness area with numerous hiking trails.

Kona

DAY 14: Honolulu, O'ahu

After disembarkation, travel to the remarkable Byodo-In Temple, an exquisite replica of a temple in Uji, Japan, nestled in the serene Valley of the Temples on the slopes of the Ko'olau Mountain Range.

Upon reaching Waimea Valley, an area steeped in historical, cultural, and spiritual significance, you'll have the opportunity to immerse yourself in the magic of the valley while enjoying an included lunch. Continuing along the North Shore, you'll be treated to scenic views of Mokoli'i, an offshore islet, and the renowned North Shore surfing breaks.

NCL's Pride of America

lao Valley

Your journey will then lead you to the historic Haleiwa Town, where you can explore its well-preserved old plantation character, indulge in some shopping, and stretch your legs.

As you embark on the final leg of your tour, you'll arrive at the Dole Plantation, a place where you can learn, see, and taste the fruit that is an integral part of the island's heritage. Returning to Honolulu, you'll take a break for dinner and have the opportunity for any last-minute shopping at a local outlet mall before being transferred to the airport for your red-eye flight home.

DAY 15: Arrive Home

This marks the end of your unforgettable Hawaiian adventure, filled with enriching experiences and breathtaking sights.
